

Resources for February 3, 2019 service:

This is a list of videos that address various aspects of the various aspects of the experience of African Americans in our country's history.

Amistad
Rosewood
Long Walk Home
Men of Honor
Glory
Glory Road
The Help
Hidden Figures
Marshall
Mudbound
Green Book
In the Heat of the Night
The Hurricane
Malcolm X
Mississippi Burning
Raisin in the Sun
Four Little Girls
12 Years a Slave
The Butler
Selma
Fences
13th
Eyes on the Prize Documentary Series

Jim Crow Museum of Racist Memorabilia

The Jim Crow Museum of Racist Memorabilia at Ferris State University displays a wide variety of everyday artifacts depicting the history of racist portrayals of African Americans in American popular culture. The museum is open from 12-5 p.m., Monday through Saturday and is free to the public.