

The Seven Principles of Unitarian Universalism

We covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

A whole new version of UU values has been proposed, as represented in the graphic below.

"We are ourselves creations.
We are meant to continue creativity by being creative ourselves. This is the God-force extending itself through us.
Creativity is God's gift to us. Using creativity is our gift back to God."

Song

"Ours Is a Simple Faith"

*Ours is a simple faith,
Life is a short embrace,
Heaven is in this place every day.*

*Hope is the ground we till,
Make each day what you will,
Thankful for dreams fulfilled every day.*

Welcome

Chalice Lighting

*All that we have ever loved
And all that we have ever been Stands with us on the brink
Of all that we aspire to create:
A deeper peace,
A larger love,
A more embracing hope,
A deeper joy in this life we share.*

- Rev. Leslie Takahashi

Meditation and Prayer

Sacred Song

#123 "Spirit of Life"

*Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.*

Chalice Extinguishing

*We extinguish this flame
but not the light of truth,
the warmth of community,
or the fire of commitment.
These we carry in our hearts until we are together again.*
