31ST ANNUAL ELIZABETH LOCKWOOD WHEELER LECTURE

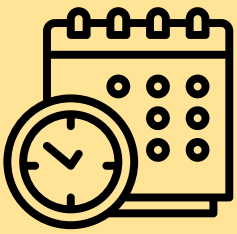
"Public Health 2.0: Bridging a Generational Divide"

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

DAPHNE FRIAS - DISABILITY AND CLIMATE ACTIVIST

Daphne Frias will discuss the next generation of activism and how it is transforming public health. Topics covered will include: disability justice and the climate crisis. Participants will leave with a better understanding of grassroots organizing, social media culture and intergenerational dialogue.

Date
April 5th, 2023
Time
7:00 PM



Location
CMU College of Health Professions Room 1020, Large Lecture Hall

Sponsored by...

Eta Sigma Gamma
NATIONAL HEALTH EDUCATION HONORARY

CENTRAL SUSTAINABILITY

CMU CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY | The Herbert H. & Grace A. Dow College of Health Professions
Division of Public Health

OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL DIVERSITY, EQUITY, & INCLUSION
CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

CMU, an AA/EO institution, strongly and actively strives to increase diversity and provide equal opportunity for all individuals, irrespective of gender identity or sexual orientation and including but not limited to minorities, females, veterans and individuals with disabilities.